ACCOMMODATION

As the space is limited, CAFA does not provide on-campus dormitory. We encourage exchange students to find accommodation as early as possible. You should allow approximately 3000 to 5000 RMB per month for Housing.

ADMISSION and VISA

The answer to the exchange application will be given 4-5 weeks after the deadline.

The digital Admission Letter and DQ form will be sent to the successful applicants via Email which is for them to apply for X2 VISA (Short-term Student Visa) to the Embassy/Consulate of China in their countries.

Upon arrival within 24 hours the exchange students must go to the local police station website to register for the Accommodation Registration Form with passport and lease contract from the landlord.

INSURANCE

Exchange students must get health care and accident Insurance. Students are responsible for taking out adequate insurance coverage before entering the country.

LIVING IN CHINA

Living in China, you will need local mobile phone number which you can get from the company of China Unicom or China Mobile with your passport.

Wechat is the most commonly used Apps for people to communicate every day.

Currently cash is not the popular paying methods. Instead, Wechat pay and Alipay are the most convenient payment methods for online shopping and physical store consumption, and even taking a taxi or riding a bicycle. However, enough cash is necessary before opening the local bank account.
